Register for a Diligence Cloud Account

Thank you for purchasing this wireless transmitter. In order to setup and operate your transmitter you will require a Diligence Cloud account.

It is important that you register for an account as soon as possible at:

<https://diligence.cloud/login>

Once you have an active Diligence Cloud account, you will need to copy, or make a note of, your cloud account number before following the steps outlined in the Quick Start Guide to get your transmitter(s) connected.

Already have an account?

Only one account is required so simply login to your existing account and copy, or make a note of, your cloud account number from the account menu.
